CODE OF CONDUCT FOR PARENTS AND CARERS

Who does this apply to?

The Parents Code of Conduct applies to all parents/carers at any badminton tournament. If the code is breached and reported, all complaints and allegations will be acted upon according to Badminton England Disciplinary Procedures.

Parents should:

- Focus on the child's efforts and enjoyment rather than winning or losing; children participate in tournaments for their benefit, not that of their parents
- Encourage players to participate within the rules and regulations of the game
- Provide positive feedback only when giving playing advice
- Congratulate all participants on their performance regardless of the game's outcome, and applaud good performance and efforts from all individuals
- Respect the tournament officials and umpires, and their decisions, and teach children to do the same
- Respect all players and spectators, and teach children to do the same
- Inform the tournament secretary, referee or welfare officer of any injury, health or welfare issue that you feel it is appropriate for them to know
- Ensure that their child/children arrive and are collected promptly for tournament; ensure children are available promptly for scheduled games
- Treat everyone equally regardless of age, ability, gender, race, religion, ethnic origin, social status or sexual orientation
- Challenge and/or report any discriminatory behaviour; report any concerns regarding a young person, according to Badminton England procedures

Parents will not:

- Force their child/children to play when they are unwilling or unfit to do so
- Ridicule or shout at any child, for making a mistake or losing a game
- Question publicly any of the tournament officials decisions within a game or match
- Enter the court of play unless invited to do so by an official
- Use foul, sexist or racist language or gestures at any time
- Condone behaviour that contravenes the code of practice

If you have any concerns about any of the above or other Safeguarding and Protection issues, please speak (in confidence) to:
